

Lynn House
National Brand Educator
Heaven Hill Brands

Lynn House is Heaven Hill Brands' National Brand Educator. In her role, Lynn is responsible for on-premise support, training and mentoring. Her primary emphasis is on Domaine de Canton French Ginger Liqueur, the world's first ultra-premium ginger liqueur that created and defines the category, and PAMA Pomegranate Liqueur, the indispensable modifier that brings sweet tart balance, vibrant color and complexity to cocktails, for which she has served as brand ambassador since 2013. In this role, she now works nationally to support the on-premise brand objectives through marketing and sales support for both brands.

Prior to joining Heaven Hill, Lynn served as Chief Mixologist and Beverage Director at Blackbird Restaurant in Chicago. At Blackbird, she organically developed the first mixology program for this James Beard Award-winning, Michelin-starred destination. Previous experience in her 25 years in hospitality includes Chief Mixologist/Beverage Director at Michelin two-star restaurant Graham Elliot. She was also part of the original three-member Master Bartender team at The Drawing Room and was named one of 2011's Top 20 Most Fabulous Bartenders in the World by Gary "gaz" Regan.

Throughout her career, Lynn has distinguished herself as a national finalist at numerous cocktail competitions hosted by brands that include Don Q, Bacardi, Grey Goose, 42 Below, Benedictine and Bombay Sapphire.

Her libations work has been featured in her hometown media, including The Chicago Sun-Times, The Chicago Tribune and Time Out Chicago, as well as national media such as GQ, Esquire, Ebony, Saveur, The Tasting Panel, Cheers, Imbibe, Forbes Traveler and The Bartender's Gin Compendium.

Lynn is a graduate of the Academy of Spirits and Fine Service, The Academy of Culinary Mixology, Bar Smarts Advanced and the British American Drama Academy. She earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre and Arts Management from Miami University.
